CHI MEI OPTOELECTRONICS CORPORATION'S NOTICE OF JOINDER TO STIPULATION AND ORDER REGARDING PAGE LIMITS FOR BRIEFING

On July 30, 2008, LG Display Co., Ltd., and LG Display America, Inc. ("LGD") and AU Optronics Corporation and AU Optronics Corporation America ("AUO") submitted a stipulation and order requiring, subject to the approval of the Court, that the page limits for the opening claim construction briefs shall be 60 pages for AUO and 90 pages for LGD. See D.I. 368.

LGD and AUO further agreed, subject to the approval of the Court, that the page limits for CMO's opening claim construction brief may be increased to 60 pages if CMO agrees to join in the stipulation after it was filed. Id. On August 1, 2008, the Court signed the stipulation.

As set forth in its Motion to Limit the Number of Patents-in-Suit and Stay the Remainder ("Motion") (D.I. 372, 373) filed earlier today, CMO believes that the parties should agree to limit the number of patents for further litigation and stay the remainder for later trial, which may obviate the need to expand claim construction page limits. For example, as proposed by CMO in its Motion, each party could elect four of its patents and three claims from each such patent, with the remaining patents stayed for later trial. In the absence of such an agreement, however, CMO reserves its rights and joins the stipulation for additional pages in the Markman briefing, as provided for in the stipulation.
